

TRAGEDY AT THE TWICE MONTHLY

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Are costumes required?

If you enjoy dressing up for Halloween, by all means do so (with the caveat that a giant bear or sexy devil might not be the best choice). The “Awards Dinner” isn’t set in any time period, so fashion from any decade, up to and including October 24, 2025 (e.g., everyday clothes) is welcome.

How complicated are the puzzles?

Not knowing everyone’s level of puzzle enthusiasm, they will be challenging but not impossible. Detectives in each room will help, with hints that ensure everyone has a chance to solve the mystery.

Is this a team event?

Share the fun and plan to work in pairs or teams of four. Please indicate when signing up who you’d like on your team. If you don’t have a team, don’t worry; we’ll ensure everyone is partnered up to solve the puzzles.

Will dinner be served?

This event will start like any other Fortnightly dinner evening. You’ll be greeted at the door, receive a table assignment and enjoy self-hosted cocktails and hors d’oeuvres during the gathering time.

Once the mystery begins, a buffet will open in the ballroom and the bar will remain open. Guests may eat, drink and be merry throughout the game playing time, or wait until we all gather for the solution before fixing their plate.
